Claims 1-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter, which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

Applicant indicates in the arguments filed on February 26, 2005 that US Patent number 5,766,622 was incorporated by reference in the original as filed application. The attempt to incorporate subject matter into this application by reference to US Patent number 5,766,622 is improper because mere reference to another application, patent or publication is not an incorporation of anything therein into the application containing such reference for the purpose of the disclosure required by 35 USC 112, first paragraph (In re Seversky, 177 USPQ 144).

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 14, 35 & 36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Inglett (5,766,662) for reasons of record.

Applicant argues that his invention is not directed to the production of hydrolyzed cellulose but rather to a composition of matter containing hydrolyzed cellulose. This argument has been considered but is not persuasive because the examples in Inglett provide for a composition of matter containing the required insoluble cellulosic dietary fiber. Applicant argues that the reference does not clearly suggest an emulsified liquid shortening composition. The claims as written do not require that the product be an emulsified liquid shortening.

The rejection of the claims under 35 USC 102 & 103 over Young, Jenkins & Cox has been withdrawn in response to applicants' amendments to the claims.
